We take pride in serving your Home Town!

Fraudulent text messages that appear to be sent from your credit union are targeting members with harmful links that lead to spoofed websites. The spoofed website may look like the credit union's legitimate website and target members to input their confidential information such as usernames, passwords, and 2-factor authentication codes. Giving your personal banking information can ultimately lead to account takeover. These fraudulent text messages often have a sense of urgency, hoping to lure your information from you in a state of panic. Here are some common scenarios:

Your account has been locked or suspended due to suspicious or fraudulent transactions.

Unusual/suspicious transactions at [Store Name].

Unusual/suspicious transactions at cryptocurrency exchanges.

Unusual/suspicious transactions via contactless payments, such as Zelle or Venmo.

Eastex Credit Union will never text you about your account information. If you receive a suspicious text message claiming to be from Eastex Credit Union, do not click any links and instead, give us a call to report the number at 409-276-2525.
